

Lucy Dickens

Award winning artist, Lucy Dickens has created a new and unique, story-like approach to landscape painting which has the Fine Art Community a buzz. Dickens selects a moment in time and transforms it into a story on canvas. Her paintings convey an emotional reaction that pull the viewer into scenes of beautiful tranquility, "I paint landscapes because I'm drawn to what I call, 'A Moment of Perfect Peace.' It's the exact point in time I come upon a setting that has all the elements I look for; a scene that has a power, strength and intensity that draws me in. It's these fleeting illustrations of nature's grandeur that I strive to capture. There is a story in all these segments of time, and therefore, a story in all my paintings. I am a Fine Art Story-Teller." - Dickens

Dickens uses her spiritual love of nature, color and balance to evoke feelings of tranquility and grace. Her paintings are individual windows created to instantly transport the viewer to an authentic place and time; to take a journey and find serenity.

Dickens recent trip to the magical region of Italy presented the Artist with one breathtaking backdrop after another. The result is a collection of exquisite oil paintings that celebrate the unspoiled Tuscan countryside with great adoration and expertise.

With numerous awards, juried exhibitions and editorials quickly accumulating, it's clear to all that Lucy Dickens is establishing herself as one of the premiere landscape artists of her day.

"My paintings are the product of the beauty that is sometimes never seen." - Dickens
